CONDOLENCE NOTE

We hear about the sad demise of our beloved Queen Elizabeth II. It's a great loss to the people of the world, especially for the citizens of the United Kingdom. She was a great personality who got the opportunity to work as a leader and to be a witness to many historical events of the world. There is no doubt that her dedication to the country and interest in performing royal duties will be remembered for generations to come. Her strategic stance enabled the people of the United Kingdom to overcome many crises.

On behalf of the Indian (Malankara) Orthodox Church, especially our faithful who are living in the United Kingdom, we stand by with the whole country and world to express our profound condolences to Your Majesty and all the members of the Royal Family, as well as the Government and people of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth. We pray to the Lord Jesus Christ to grant Her Majesty the heavenly rewards promised to good stewards and faithful servants. May God rest the Queen's soul and may her memory live forever.

May the peace and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
